How to join

Join AMWA. Once you’re an AMWA member, you are also automatically a member of a local AMWA chapter. If you live in the domain of AMWA-NY, then you are an AMWA-NY member. (see AMWA Chapter Map to determine if you live in our reach).

If you would like to be a member of AMWA-NY but live in another local chapter region, contact the Membership Coordinator at AMWA headquarters to request a change in chapter membership. The e-mail link to membership services is: samantha@amwa.org.

There is no way to be a member of AMWA-NY but not AMWA. In order to become a member of AMWA-NY, fill out the AMWA Membership information to become a member of AMWA and, if you do not live in our geographic domain, specifically request AMWA-NY membership.

Why to join

Membership benefits more than pay for the cost of dues. Benefits include:

- Automatic membership in a local AMWA chapter (such as AMWA-NY if you are in our region) for potentially easier and more frequent networking with medical writers in your area
- Career development at all expertise levels

- Continuing education through highly regarded workshops and certificate programs
- Networking with more than 5,600 members in 19 chapters in the US and Canada
- Job opportunities posted online
- Publications including an indexed journal, e-newsletter (AMWA Update), and books
- Member discounts on meetings, publications, and other products, including free access to MD Consult
- More about AMWA membership (link: http://www.amwa.org/assoc_subscribe.asp)